FIRST MIDTERM MOCK EXAM - SAMPLE 1

a) In the text below, you will read about brandy. For blanks 1 to 5, choose the right verb form. For blanks 6 to 10, choose the right connector. ……/30

The discovery of brandy

Brandy [1] defines / can be defined / was defined as an alcoholic beverage distilled from wine or a fermented fruit mash. The term used alone generally [2] is referring / refer / refers to the grape product. Brandies made from the wines or fermented mashes of other fruits [3] is commonly identified / commonly identify / are commonly identified by the specific fruit name. The name comes from the Dutch brandewijn ("burnt wine"), referring to the application of heat in distillation.

Apparently, brandy [4] was discovered / discovered / had discovered in the 16th century. According to one story, a Dutch shipmaster intended to add water to the wine that he [5] had concentrated / was concentrated / concentrates for shipment before he left for his destination port. [6] Before / When / If he arrived, he noticed that the concentrated wine tasted better than the original. [7] Besides / However / As , the ageing process throughout transportation had contributed to the woody flavour of the spirit. [8] Because / If / Before the beverage was immediately accepted, it began to be widely produced and commercialised.

Most wine-producing countries make brandy. For example, French brandies include cognac, from the Charente and Charente-Maritime départements of France. It is known all over the world [9] so / as / but it is usually considered the finest of all brandies. [10] Therefore / However / Also, brandy is produced in Armagnac, in the Gers region. Spain, which has sherry-producing centres, is known for brandy, too.

Glossary Mash: Pulpa Grape: Uva Heat: Calor Woody: Amaderado

b) Make Wh- Questions about the following extract. Underline the answers in the extract.

……/35

According to the results of a recent opinion poll, a surprising 44% of candidates said that they never heard back from the employer at all after their most recent job interview. Also, even those unsuccessful applicants that get the polite rejection call or email are never told why they weren't selected.

Sometimes it's just that the employer met several candidates and you weren't the strongest. Other times candidates make a mistake during the job interview that turns the employer off. However, people are not often selected for causes that actually have nothing to do with the strength of their candidacy.

Glossary

Turn (somebody) off: causar rechazo a alguien

1. Who ……?
2. When ……?
3. Why ……?
4. ……?
5. ……?

c) Express yourself: Write a 4-sentence paragraph about the topic below. Include at least 2 elements from each column. ……/35

Being a multitasker is the most important trait to get hired.

…finds it… to	besides
…can…	as
He/She is a/an …	after
…enjoy…	however

EXAM SCORE:			……/100
96-100 points= 10	76-85 points= 8	66-69 points= 6	50-55 points= 4
86-95 points= 9	70-75 points= 7	56-65 points= 5	0-49 points= 2

KEY

Exercise A - 30 points

1. can be defined
2. refers
3. are commonly identified
4. was discovered
5. had concentrated
6. When
7. Besides
8. Because
9. as
10. Also

Exercise B - 35 points

(Sample answers. There may be other possibilities.)

According to the results of a recent opinion poll, a surprising 44% of candidates said that they never heard back from the employer at all [2]after their most recent job interview. Also, even those unsuccessful applicants that get [5]the polite rejection call or email are never told why they weren't selected.

Sometimes it's just that the employer met [4]several candidates and you weren't the strongest. Other times [1]candidates make a mistake during the job interview that turns the employer off. However, people are not often selected [3]for causes that actually have nothing to do with the strength of their candidacy.

1. Who makes a mistake during the job interview?
2. When didn't candidates hear from the employer?
3. Why aren't people often selected?
4. How many candidates did the employer meet?
5. What do some unsuccessful candidates get?

Exercise C - 35 points

Students' own answers.